II. Information about the applied processes and procedures

Information about the applied processes and procedures concerning management of the execution of obligations resulting from the tax regulations and ensuring their proper execution [Art. 27c section 2 point 1a of the Law]

The Company's Management pays due attention to the management of the execution of tax obligations according to the internal tax (fiscal) strategy. Tax problems are treated in the Company as the problems of enterprise's responsibility. Special attention is paid to payment of taxes in due amounts and by the time required by regulations in force. The aim of the fiscal strategy is to guarantee tax compliance in the process of evidencing and reporting.

Fiscal strategy of DXC Group assumes transparency and clarity of execution of public law obligations, taking into account keeping tax safety of our own company and cooperating units.

The Company's Management implements internal mechanisms in order to guarantee effective and adequate control over the organisation from the point of view of fulfilment of obligations imposed on the Company by tax regulations. In particular, the Company:

- is diligent in order to ensure correctness of Company's tax settlements using adequate personal and material resources;
- identifies tax risk areas especially exposed to unintentional irregularities and – basing on the implemented procedures and supported by qualified personnel – adequately manages identified risk or, if possible, eliminates it;
- avoids exposition to tax risk trying to minimise it using internal resources and – if they are not sufficient – assisted by external consultants;
- analyses tax results of taken and planned actions and transactions, - submits declarations on time and fulfils reporting obligations;
- does not avoid (postpone) payment of tax liabilities, paying all its liabilities on time and in due amounts;
- in its actions it is guided with partnership principles, dialogue and cooperation with public institutions and tax authorities.

The fiscal strategy of the Company is subject to regular reviews and it is adjusted to changes in the surroundings and inside the organisation and to the identified tax risk connected with current activities.

FISCAL YEAR: 2021/2022

In order to fulfil correctly the obligations connected with settlement of taxes and other public law obligations towards State Treasury, the Company applies a series of internal procedures (both written and presumptive/unedited) adjusted to the organisational structure and applicable internal tools.

The Company applies procedures, among others, in the scope of:

- document circulation, document and bookkeeping evidence control,
- methods of control of timeliness and correctness of submission of tax declarations and tax payments,
- due diligence in settlements of tax on goods and services, including verification of contractors in VIES system and in the taxpayer list, the so-called white list,
- procedure of the split-payment method – verification of invoices before payment,
- reducing of risk of KKS liability,
- withhold tax (WHT), including due diligence,
- Central Register of Real Beneficiaries,
- execution of obligations within the tax schemes (MDR),
- procedures in force in DXC Group including Transfer Pricing Policy, Code of Conduct,
- other procedures, both written and presumptive (unedited).

The Company applies an obligatory training system applicable to the persons involved in execution of tax obligations.

Within the Group, the Company regularly keeps informed the related subjects about the tax obligations resulting from the tax regulations in force in Poland. Agreements and other transactions concluded by the Company are assessed as to their conformity with the tax law in force and in case of doubt they are consulted with tax advisors cooperating with the Company.

The Company cooperates on a current basis with external tax advisors, engaging them, in particular, in the specific topics, like e.g. preparation of transfer pricing documentation. Doubtful tax problems are analysed by them on a current basis.

If it is not possible to determine unambiguously tax consequences on the basis of interpretation of tax advisors and practice of courts and tax authorities, the Company applies for individual tax interpretations.

DXC Polska performs professional activity, by its Branch in Wrocław, in the scope of bookkeeping services and personal and payroll services. In order to ensure the highest service quality, DXC Polska employs a team of professionals in bookkeeping, HR, payroll and taxes.
